
23rd Annual
Building Industry Association of Washington

2017

Hall of Fame
Nomination Packet

Nomination packet due to BIAW office by May 5, 2017

■ Purpose

The purpose of the BIAW Hall of Fame is to honor men and women who have made significant and lasting contributions to the Building Industry Association of Washington. The Hall of Fame acknowledges lifetime achievement in the building industry.

■ Nominees

Nominees must represent the highest level of achievement in the building industry over an entire career. Nominees will be selected from the following categories:

- Builder/Developer
Owner or key administrator of a residential building company.
- Subcontractors and/or Material Suppliers
Individuals directly responsible for supplying goods or services to builders.
- Government
Elected or appointed officials involved in government service relating to housing.
- Housing Related
Individuals involved in related fields of endeavor such as financing, land development and planning, architecture, housing research and housing related trade associations.

■ Call for Entries

A call for entries will be made prior to the BIAW Summer Board meeting. A BIAW member, local association or the BIAW By-laws and Nominating Committee may submit nominations to the BIAW Hall of Fame Recommendation Committee (HOFRC). Nomination packets shall be received by the BIAW office. A nominee may not be submitted more than five consecutive times.

■ Guidelines for Nominations

- A completed Nomination Form must be enclosed.
- Persons (living or deceased) who have made significant and lasting contributions to BIAW.
- Financial success or size of an individual's operation shall not be considered a real contribution. The contribution must have resulted in a substantial improvement or innovation in Washington's housing and promotion of BIAW's philosophy, which is to protect housing affordability and free enterprise.
- It is not necessary to have served in an elected capacity on the state or local association level.
- Magazine and/or newspaper articles published about the nominee concerning other related building and housing activities and contributions may be submitted.

■ Selection Procedure

- The HOFRC, comprised of all BIAW Hall of Fame recipients, all BIAW Past Presidents, and all BIAW Past Second Vice Presidents, will discuss the merits of each nominee.
- The HOFRC will review and recommend up to five candidates.

■ Voting Criteria

- A candidate must receive at least a two-thirds majority affirmative vote of the HOFRC.
- There need not be an inductee in any year.

■ Announcement of Election Results, Induction Ceremony

- Successful candidates will be announced to the Executive Committee at the Summer BOD.
- Inductees into the BIAW Hall of Fame will be honored during the BIAW Fall Board meeting's Installation and Awards Ceremony. Hall of Fame inductees' photos will be displayed at the BIAW office.
