Re: L&I RALLY—Why won't the state Department of Labor & Industries (L&I) reveal the workers' compensation rates businesses will pay in 2011? Small business owners from around the state will protest at the L&I building in Tumwater to demand the Department quit playing politics and come clean about what most experts predict will be a massive tax increase on employers.

The agenda includes remarks by NFIB/Washington State Director Patrick Connor, Senator Janae Holmquist and others.

Time & Date: October 20, 2010
10:00 am
WA State Department of Labor & Industries
7273 Linderson Way SW
Tumwater, WA 98501-5414

Why: Whether it's the ever-increasing workers' compensation taxes, the shoddy service from apathetic state bureaucrats or the fact L&I is playing politics by refusing to tell business owners how much of a tax hike to expect for 2011—taxpayers are mad. This rally will give business owners the opportunity to show out-of-touch L&I bureaucrats how they feel.
