

30th Annual

Building Industry Association of Washington

2024

Hall of Fame

Nomination Packet

Nomination packet due to BIAW by June 1, 2024

Hall of Fame Nomination Packet | Details

Purpose

The purpose of the BIAW Hall of Fame (HOF) is to honor men and women who have made significant and lasting contributions to BIAW. The HOF acknowledges lifetime achievement in the building industry.

Nominees

Nominees must represent the highest level of achievement in the building industry over an entire career. Nominees will be selected from the following categories:

- Builder/Developer
Owner or key administrator of a residential building company.
- Subcontractors and/or Material Suppliers
Individuals directly responsible for supplying goods or services to builders.
- Government
Elected or appointed officials involved in government service relating to housing.
- Housing Related
Individuals involved in related fields of endeavor such as financing, land development and planning, architecture, housing research and housing related trade associations.

Call for Entries

A call for entries is made prior to the BIAW summer board meeting. A BIAW member, local association or a member of the BIAW Bylaws and Nominations committee may submit a nomination to the BIAW Hall of Fame Recommendation Committee (HOFRC). Nomination packets shall be received by the BIAW office. A nominee may not be submitted more than five consecutive times.

Guidelines for Nominations

- A completed nomination form
- Persons (living or deceased) who have made significant and lasting contributions to BIAW
- Financial success or size of an individual's operation shall not be considered a real contribution
- The contribution must have resulted in a substantial improvement or innovation in Washington's housing and promotion of BIAW's philosophy, protecting housing affordability and free enterprise
- It is not necessary to have served in an elected capacity on the state or local association level
- Magazine and/or newspaper articles published about the nominee concerning other related building and housing activities and contributions may be attached to nomination form

Selection Procedure

- The HOFRC, comprised of BIAW HOF members, BIAW past presidents, and BIAW past second vice presidents, discuss the merits of each nominee
- The HOFRC reviews and may recommend up to five candidates

Voting Criteria

- Voting is conducted by secret ballot
- A candidate must receive at least a two-thirds majority affirmative vote of the HOFRC
- There need not be an inductee in any year

Announcement of Election Results, Induction Ceremony

- Successful candidates will be announced to the executive committee during the summer board meeting
- Successful candidates will be inducted into the HOF during BIAW's annual installation and awards ceremony which is in conjunction with the fall board meeting
- HOF member's photo will be displayed at the BIAW office

Nominee Profile

Name _____ Title _____

Local Association _____

Company _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Telephone _____

Submitted By (check one)

Local Association

Member

Bylaws & Nominations Committee

Name _____ Title _____

Local Association _____

Company _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Telephone _____

HOF | Nominee Details

1. Describe any significant or lasting contributions the nominee has made to BIAW; Washington's housing market; housing affordability; and/or free enterprise. Include dates of services and scope of projects.

2. How has nominee been involved in his/her local, state and national builders' associations? Include years of service, roles (i.e., elected office or committee work), special skills, and/or major accomplishments. Please focus specifically on roles with BIAW.

3. What service(s) has nominee performed for his/her community?

4. What awards has nominee received for meritorious service in the various positions that he/she has held in housing-related activities?

5. How will the vision, creativity, and innovations attributed to this nominee have a lasting influence on the housing industry in Washington state?

6. The nominee should be named to the BIAW Hall of Fame for the following reasons:

Please submit the completed nomination form to Association Services Director Brenda Kwieicat at brendak@biaw.com.

Questions? Contact Brenda Kwieciak at (360) 352-7800, ext. 113.